

Luncheon Briefing

Investing in Discovery:

The Impact of Basic Research and the Role of the National Institute of General Medical Sciences

The Ad Hoc Group for Medical Research

in conjunction with the

Congressional Biomedical Research Caucus

invite you to the latest installment in a series of Congressional briefings on how the nation's investment in the National Institutes of Health (NIH) is fostering scientific discoveries to enhance the health and well-being of the American people

Friday, March 5, 2010

Noon to 1:00 p.m.

Rayburn House Office Building – Room B-339
(Box lunches will be available)

Featuring:

Jeremy Berg, Ph.D.

Director

National Institute of General Medical Sciences

This briefing is co-sponsored by:

American Physiological Society
American Psychological Association
American Society for Biochemistry and Molecular Biology
American Society for Pharmacology & Experimental Therapeutics
American Statistical Association
Association for Psychological Science
Association of Independent Research Institutes (AIRI)
Association of American Medical Colleges (AAMC)
Coalition for Life Sciences
Consortium of Social Science Associations
Federation of American Societies for Experimental Biology (FASEB)
Federation of Associations in Behavioral & Brain Sciences (FABBS)
Genetics Society of America
Research!America
Society for Neuroscience

Positive RSVPs only to Hayzell Gollopp at hgollopp@aamc.org

This is a widely attended event.