Congressional Briefings Transcripts:

For the last several years, COSSA has sponsored a Congressional briefing series, with generous support from the Ford Foundation and the W.K. Kellogg Foundation. The briefings, which feature prominent social and behavioral scientists, are designed to bring the results of social, behavioral, and economic research to policymakers. Listed below are recent seminars that COSSA has sponsored. If you are interested in receiving any of the transcripts below, put a check mark next to the seminar, complete the request form, and fax the form to COSSA at (202) 842-2788.
